

HONG KONG WEEK UPDATE

Great food, wine – and networking!

Tuesday 15 September

HP8 Restaurant - 100 Carlton Gore Rd, Newmarket

As part of Hong Kong Week, the HKNZBA is hosting a banquet to celebrate Hong Kong food and New Zealand wine. HKNZBA members are being offered the opportunity to buy tables first. A table for 12 people costs $450, or you can join others at a table for $40 per person. To book please contact Cyrus Cheng at hk@hongkong.org.nz now.

Hong Kong Film Festival 2009

September 16 – 20

Rialto Cinemas Newmarket, Auckland

The Hong Kong Business Association and the Asia NZ Film Foundation are pleased to present the first ever Hong Kong Film Festival to be held in New Zealand.

The festival showcases some of Hong Kong's leading film production and acting talent. Four of the movies were released last year and one in 2007. The films tell stories of prostitution, tough life in a New Territories town, kidnapping and crime, gang wars and a legend about the defeat of a warlord and rise of a people's hero. They have all won awards in Hong Kong and at international film festivals.

For more information or to buy tickets please visit www.hkfilmfestival.co.nz. HKNZBA members are being offered pre-sale tickets. To book or make enquiries please contact Cyrus Cheng or Jane Pickering on (09) 307 1216.

TRADE MISSION TO HK, CANTON FAIR & PEARL RIVER DELTA

The Hong Kong Business Association is partnering with the NZ China Trade Association and Export New Zealand to take a delegates group to Hong Kong, the Canton Fair in Guangzhou and on a networking tour in the Pearl River Delta.

The plan is to leave Auckland around Sunday, October 11 and return around October 22.

The package – price to be determined – will include airfares, accommodation, some meals, tour guides and buses... but most importantly, meetings behind doors you wouldn't get to open usually as an individual business networker.

Lodge your no obligation expression of interest, or request further details by emailing Cyrus at hk@hongkong.org.nz or Tel: (09) 307 1216.
